Gifts to the BBA Program Office will be used at the discretion of the BBA Program to support an initiative or program they have set as a priority such as travel awards, the career management center and BBA.

Gifts to the MBA Program Office will be used at the discretion of the MBA Program to support an initiative or program they have set as a priority such as international travel, the career management center and MBAs.

Gifts to the MBA Program Office will be used at the discretion of the MBA Program to support an initiative or program they have set as a priority.

Gifts to the MBA Program Office will be used at the discretion of the MBA Program to support an initiative or program they have set as a priority.

Gifts support interdisciplinary scholarship that informs responsible applications of neuroscience in research, the clinic, and society as well as engages and activates our community in neuroethics discourse.

Gifts support interdisciplinary scholarship that informs responsible applications of neuroscience in research, the clinic, and society as well as engages and activates our community in neuroethics discourse.

Gifts support interdisciplinary scholarship that informs responsible applications of neuroscience in research, the clinic, and society as well as engages and activates our community in neuroethics discourse.

Gifts support interdisciplinary scholarship that informs responsible applications of neuroscience in research, the clinic, and society as well as engages and activates our community in neuroethics discourse.

Gifts support interdisciplinary scholarship that informs responsible applications of neuroscience in research, the clinic, and society as well as engages and activates our community in neuroethics discourse.

Gifts support interdisciplinary scholarship that informs responsible applications of neuroscience in research, the clinic, and society as well as engages and activates our community in neuroethics discourse.

Gifts to the MBA Program Office will be used at the discretion of the MBA Program to support an initiative or program they have set as a priority.

Gifts to the MBA Program Office will be used at the discretion of the MBA Program to support an initiative or program they have set as a priority.

Gifts to the MBA Program Office will be used at the discretion of the MBA Program to support an initiative or program they have set as a priority.

Gifts to the MBA Program Office will be used at the discretion of the MBA Program to support an initiative or program they have set as a priority.

Gifts provide philanthropic support designated to scholarships that give Emory the ability to create a class that includes the best students regardless of income.
Emory Law:
- Black Law Students Association Endowed Scholarship Fund: Gifts support a second-year law student each Spring as a scholarship awarded by the BLSA Advisory Committee.
- Emory Public Interest Committee (EPIC) Fund: Gifts support summer internships in public interest jobs for law students.
- Faculty Support - Law School Fund: Gifts support faculty scholarships within the law school.
- School of Law Fund for Excellence: Gifts support the law school as a whole and primarily augment our scholarship funds to students.
- The Emory Law Volunteer Clinic for Veterans Fund: Gifts support law students assisting veterans in the community with legal matters.
- Turner Environmental Law Clinic: Gifts help to establish an environmental law clinic at Emory Law School.

Emory University School of Medicine:
- Allied Health Program Support: Gifts help provide critical support to the areas of most need within the following programs: Anesthesiology Assistant, Genetic Counseling, Medical Imaging, Physician Assistant, and Physical Therapy.
- Fund for Emory Medicine: Gifts enable scholarship support that allow more physicians to choose to work with vulnerable populations where they're most needed.
- School of Medicine Alumni Scholarship Fund: Gifts provide scholarship support to allow more physicians to work with vulnerable populations.
- School of Medicine Alumni Scholarship Fund: Gifts enable scholarship support that allow more physicians to choose to work with vulnerable populations where they're most needed.
- School of Medicine Alumni Scholarship Fund: Gifts enable scholarship support that allow more physicians to choose to work with vulnerable populations where they're most needed.

School of Nursing:
- Charles F. and Peggy Evans Simulation Center Fund: Gifts help to establish a simulation center that provides opportunities for students to develop clinical skills.
- Lilias Carter Center for Global Health and Social Responsibility: Gifts to this center provide support for graduate students working in global health.
- Nursing Fund for Excellence: Gifts to this fund enable nursing students to pursue global health initiatives that prepare them for leadership roles.
- Nursing School Scholarship Fund: Gifts to this fund enable nursing students to pursue global health initiatives that prepare them for leadership roles.
- Sally T. Lohr Scholarship Fund: Gifts to this scholarship benefit students with an interest in psychiatric-mental health or human sexuality at the School of Nursing.

Oxford College:
- Brook International Travel Endowment: Gifts support Oxford College students who are first-time international travelers with a focus on study abroad and travel courses.
- Oxford College Class Gift: Gifts support the annual Oxford Class Gift and help the class leave a lasting legacy on campus.
- Oxford College Fund for Excellence: Gifts to the Oxford College Fund for Excellence support scholarships and other programs at Oxford College.
- Oxford College Scholarship Fund: Gifts to this fund make sure an Oxford education is within reach for all students, building a more vibrant community devoted to excellence.

Rollins School of Public Health:
- Emory University’s Gospel Choir provides music for University Worship and local churches, as well as an artistic community for students to grow in their gifts and in their faith.
- Gifts provide support for Emory’s public health programs, which include the following initiatives: disease control, environmental health, global health, and population health.
- Gifts support the acquisition of print material and ephemera from African American history and culture, as well as related public programming.
- Gifts to this fund allow the Women, Theology, and Ministry program to offer an annual lecture featuring notable speakers.

Spiritual and Religious Life:
- Center for Religious Life: Gifts provide financial support for spiritual and religious life programs that foster Emory’s inter-religious community.
- Gifts to this fund support the development of spiritual and religious life programs.
- Gifts support the acquisition of print material and ephemera from African American history and culture, as well as related public programming.
- Gifts provide financial support for spiritual and religious life programs that foster Emory’s inter-religious community.

Candler School of Theology:
- Gifts to the Emory Mayor S. John Sherrod, Jr. Fund for Excellence support student scholarships.
- Gifts support the Episcopal Studies program to enhance the offerings of the program.
- Gifts help to establish a curriculum that focuses on the history and culture of African American literature.

Emory Libraries & Information Technology:
- Gifts support the acquisition of print material and ephemera from African American history and culture, as well as related public programming.
- Gifts provide financial support for spiritual and religious life programs that foster Emory’s inter-religious community.
- Gifts provide financial support for spiritual and religious life programs that foster Emory’s inter-religious community.
- Gifts provide financial support for spiritual and religious life programs that foster Emory’s inter-religious community.

Winship Cancer Institute:
- Gifts support the research efforts of Winship’s physicians and scientists dedicated to identifying the best treatment options for patients with cancer.
- Gifts provide critical support to the areas of most need within the following programs: Anesthesiology Assistant, Genetic Counseling, Medical Imaging, Physician Assistant, and Physical Therapy.

Yerkes National Primate Research Center:
- Gifts support research in the areas of primate behavior, physiology, and disease.
- Gifts support the acquisition of print material and ephemera from African American history and culture, as well as related public programming.
- Gifts support the acquisition of print material and ephemera from African American history and culture, as well as related public programming.
- Gifts support the acquisition of print material and ephemera from African American history and culture, as well as related public programming.
- Gifts provide financial support for spiritual and religious life programs that foster Emory’s inter-religious community.

Questions? Call 404-777-4200 or email annualgiving@emory.edu.